

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor
Department of Visualization
College of Architecture - Texas A&M University

The Department of Visualization in the College of Architecture, at Texas A&M University invites applications for a tenure track faculty position at the Assistant Professor level with research and teaching interests aligned with computer graphics and visualization. The expected start date is Fall 2020. This is a nine-month, full-time, academic appointment. Candidates should have relevant experience in computer graphics, data visualization modeling and simulation, artificial intelligence, machine learning, and/or human computer interaction.

The successful applicants will teach courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels, advise and mentor graduate students, develop an independent, externally funded research program, participate in all aspects of the department's activities, and serve the professional community.

Through effective industrial advisory committees that provide valuable guidance, the department has numerous opportunities for the development of laboratories and sponsorship of applied research activities. By being an integral part of Texas A&M University, with its 19 colleges and schools and 3,950 faculty, there are excellent opportunities for interaction with scholars in other departments and disciplines to support large scale initiatives, as well as access to graduate students to assist in instructional and applied research activities.

A terminal degree (such as Ph.D. or equivalent) in a related field is required. In rare circumstances candidates with an extraordinary record of accomplishment without a terminal degree will be considered. Strong written and verbal communication skills are required. Applicants should consult the department's website to review our academic and research programs (viz.arch.tamu.edu).

Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, teaching statement, research statement, and a list of three references (including postal addresses, phone numbers and email addresses) by applying for this specific position at the interfolio website: apply.interfolio.com/71821.

Review of applications and interviews will begin in January 15 2020, and new applications will continue to be considered until the position is filled. For additional information, please contact the search committee chair Dr. Ergun Akleman, ergun.akleman@tamu.edu
